Penitentiary buildings for the purposes of a Prison - and that no steps should be taken for commencing another without the sanction of the Honorable Court for whose orders all that has occurred on the subject should be submitted = Proposes that in the interview the Contractor should be paid all he can legally or fairly demand - 8th June 20th June No. 18

2531 Minute by the Rt Hble E.——— States he has no objection to the appointment of a Board of Engineer or other Officers to ascertain whether any radical remedy is practicable or to point out to what other useful purpose the Penitentiary buildings can be applied; but, believes that the wisest and cheapest measure would be to demolish them as soon as the Honorable Court sanctions the building of another, and apply the materials to the new Penitentiary ——— 12th June No. 20

3296 Minute by do.	... Agrees with the Honble. Mr. Eliott that had the enquiry into the defalcations in the late Zillah Court of Chittoor been more efficiently conducted in the first instance, the result might have been more satisfactory, but cannot subscribe to his opinion that the sums remitted to the Courts were duly accounted for to the Civil Auditor.
